Please complete the indemnity form, the code of conduct and media release below. Initial each page (bottom right) and sign in full where required:

I, _____ (Parent/ Legal Guardian's full name) being the parent legal guardian of _____ (Child's full name), hereby:

- 1) Acknowledge the risk involved in attending this conference and hereby release anyone involved in the conference from any and all liability resulting in any injury and/or loss of life and/or loss of possessions and/or any and all damages arising from any cause whatsoever in connection with any aspect of the conference, including, without limiting the general foregoing, travel to/from the conference venues, provided however that this waiver and release shall not apply in the case of negligence on the part of anyone involved in the conference.
- 2) I acknowledge that whilst all possible care is taken for each delegate's safety, health and general welfare, overseas travel and conference of this nature do carry inherent risk. I understand that these will be minimized by training and use of the host organizations' Health and Safety Policies, Risk Assessments and Incident Management plans and appreciate that safety regulations are applied in all the activities. However, I understand that there are bound to remain residual risks of personal accident.
- 3) I am aware that my son/daughter will be involved in adventurous activities such as climbing, hiking, cycling, canoeing and surfing. I am aware these activities have danger of personal injury or death. Participants in these activities should be aware of and accept these risks and be responsible for their own actions and involvement.

CODE OF CONDUCT: PUPIL DELEGATES

Every delegate should remember that whilst they are on an International or Regional Conference they are there to represent their school. They should also remember that they are amongst very prestigious company and that it is important that all individuals behave appropriately at all times.

This means being aware of the guidelines in place. You must also remember that you might be in a new culture and there is the possibility of some differences in the laws of the country (South Africa), compared to expectations in your home country.

BEHAVIORAL GUIDELINES:

At all times you are an ambassador for your school and Round Square- you are the key factor to the success and bonding of your group;

- The smooth running of the Conference will depend on your willingness to jump in and get involved;
- Always be on time and follow the programme in place. If your group is late it will have an impact on the others attending and does not set a good example;
- Set an example of how to live the Round Square IDEALS;
- Always be ready to assist wherever you feel able or asked to do so; and
- Apply the skills you have learnt, but never be afraid to ask for help or refer a situation to an adult/facilitator if you need to.

As a pupil delegate, I have read and understand the above and know that, by entering my name below, I am acknowledging and committing myself to behave along the above guidelines.

As a parent/guardian, I have read and understand the above and know that, by entering my name below, I have discussed the above guidelines with my child and am confident that their behaviour at this conference will be in line with those guidelines.

DISCLAIMER

“Round Square’s role in pupil exchanges is one of facilitator, enabling Round Square Candidate and Member Schools to connect and organise exchanges for the benefit of the pupils taking part. Round Square does not organise any exchanges itself and is not therefore responsible for individual exchange arrangements. It is important for pupils and parents to note that Round Square does not vet or monitor the arrangements made by the schools and does not have any contact with or role in selecting host families. Round Square provides schools with best practice protocols, but you must satisfy yourselves that the arrangements made by the individual school you are considering allowing your child to visit are appropriate. Round Square therefore accepts no legal responsibility or liability for pupil exchanges whatsoever.”
